Great. Now I know where I can go to get loans for my subprime customers.

I can make sure I'm selecting the best mix of noncaptives to get the most people into a vehicle with the right offer.

This means I will be turning away fewer customers. More sales.

There are a lot of new lenders I can approach who I never knew were so active in my market.

The lender summary report:

- Identifies lenders' share in the dealer's market
- Maximizes dealer sales by identifying which lenders are providing financing in the dealer's market
