

Letter of Recommendation:

“I write this letter of recommendation for Mr. Ahmed Maher with great enthusiasm for the exceptional quality of his work as a translator of written English to Arabic. He has been translating for our organization for over a year and a half as a member of our Arabic translation team that is charged with handling some of our major United States Government contracts.

While he is vigorous and meticulous in insisting on exact meanings for words, in both languages. He also understands that words are, at best, symbols for expression. Thus, he is capable of more than literal transposing from English to Arabic and vice versa.

While his command of spoken English is more than adequate for any business/technical situation, Mr. Maher's strongest ability is certainly in written translation. He will excel in literary, technical, business or diplomatic applications of translation between Arabic and English. If you are looking for an intrinsically motivated translator for your documents, journals, manuals or correspondence, Mr. Maher is someone well worth full consideration.

Sincerely,

Mel Menendez, M.P.A.
