Introduction to the Roommate Contract:

This roommate contract is a document that should be agreed upon at the beginning of your time living together. It is a document that will help develop your relationship with your roommates. Within the document, you will discuss how you will address conflict. Even if you know your roommate before moving in, it is important you discuss the following details as living together places a different dynamic on your existing relationships.

Please take the time to fill this out together and be as honest as possible. The first step to ensuring the most positive experience in Residence is open communication so please note potential areas of conflict and brainstorm how together, you will address them should they arise in future interactions.

Remember

You do not have to be best friends with your roommate, but you do have to:

- Respect each other
- Communicate honestly and effectively and in a timely fashion
- Seek assistance when needed to avoid conflicts

If you need more room, please attach an extra sheet of paper. Please don't skip over questions as they will become important topics later

About Me

Discuss

- What are your priorities (school, socializing, physical activities)?
- When do you like to sleep?
- What are your shower/ bathroom use habits like?
- Are you a morning person?
- What are your personal habits (smoking, drinking, music, meditation, exercising, hobbies etc)

I believe that being a good roommate means the following: (i.e. keeping a good sense of humour, being considerate of roommate's privacy, sharing space equally)

Jot down your thoughts. Note your differences and find a common ground of appreciation and respect.

Coping with stress: Outline how you should approach one another with a concern in future.

It really bothers me when; so please don't:

List some non-negotiables/ likes and dislikes (borrowing/lending, door slamming/closing, food storage and use etc ...)
