

Our Core Values in Action

Humility

To act and lead in a manner that reflects or expresses a spirit of inclusion, respect for others and a willingness to subordinate one's own interest for the common good.

- Promotes the success of others
- Accepts responsibility for mistakes and failures and tries to learn from them
- Open to differing points of view
- Manages conflict and encourages others to manage in a constructive manner
- Remains calm and helps other in adverse circumstances

Integrity

A faithful way of being that embraces values inspired by community, honesty or artistry

- Chooses to be honest and forthright in all interactions
- Creates and builds a sense of trust
- Helps others to turn failures into positive results
- Stands firm in the face of adversity
- Ensures actions are consistent with words

Excellence

The art and quality of seeking and achieving the highest sustainable standards.

- Strives to achieve a high standard of excellence and continuous improvement
- Sets effective measures and holds oneself and others accountable and committed for results
- Has a bias for action and for getting things done

Humanity

The quality or state marked by compassion, active kindness and accountability to all humankind

- Supports others to help them feel successful
- Holds high regard and treats others with respect
- Values others in soliciting input on decisions that impact them