Artist Rights and Responsibilities

Donated artwork will be sold by silent auction with the starting bid set by the donor. Proceeds from auctioned art will be donated to MAWA in accordance with the percentage chosen by the donor, 100%, 75% or 50%. We gratefully accept one work from each artist in all media, including drawing, painting, photography, collage, craft, sculpture and more! The donor will receive a ticket to the event on Sunday, March 17 (no cash value) and a tax receipt equal to the amount donated to MAWA from the sale of their artwork. If the donor opts to be paid a percentage of the sale price, a cheque will be made out to them from MAWA. Both tax receipts and cheques will be mailed to the donor approximately one month from the date of the auction. Works can be shipped (at donor's expense) to: MAWA, 611 Main Street, Winnipeg MB R3B 1E1 Canada

Whether dropping off or shipping artwork, please ensure its arrival before March 1 at 6pm, 2019. We may not be able to include late artwork in the auction. Delivery of artworks to MAWA is the donor's responsibility. If work is unsold at the auction, donors will be contacted by MAWA to arrange for pick up. For out-of-town donors, MAWA will arrange shipping at the donor's expense. MAWA assumes no responsibility for damage or loss to any items sent to or displayed at the MAWA Over the Top fundraising event. MAWA may photograph the work for promotional purposes.
