

HOLD HARMLESS AGREEMENT
Between
KAMAN INDUSTRIAL TECHNOLOGIES CORPORATION
And

(VENDOR)

Dated

Supplier name (hereinafter collectively referred to as "Vendor") agrees to be responsible for and to indemnify and hold harmless Kaman Industrial Technologies Corporation, its affiliated companies and their agents and employees (hereinafter collectively referred to as "KIT") from any claims, losses, damages, expenses, or liabilities of any nature whatsoever, regardless of how arising, which it may incur/sustain by reason of any actual or claimed defect in any product supplied by Vendor to KIT for resale by KIT. Vendor will bear the expense of defending any action which may be brought against KIT in this regard or upon request of KIT shall assume the defense of any such action or proceeding and will pay any judgment, settlement or claim established against or cost or expense incurred by KIT arising from any such action.

Vendor shall procure and maintain, at Vendor's expense, Commercial General Liability insurance, including products/completed operations and contractual liability, covering Vendor's acts and operations, with a limit of not less than $5,000,000 each occurrence. Such insurance shall name KIT as an Additional Insured and contain a waiver of subrogation, cross-liability coverage and breach of warranty provisions. Such insurance shall be considered primary without right of contribution and with deductibles acceptable to KIT. Vendor shall deliver to KIT a certificate of insurance, prior to the commencement of work under this Agreement, evidencing coverage is in place. The certificate shall provide thirty (30) days written notice prior to the cancellation, non-renewal or material modification of this policy.
