NARRATION: READING WALL OF FAME

Our staff is great ones to really get into the spirit of Reading. They love to show their support of reading by participating in a Reading Wall of Fame. This time the theme of the wall is “I would rather be Reading” with them photographed doing something humorous they would much prefer to Read than do. Examples could be; the Nurse getting a shot, the janitor cleaning up a mess, the band director listening to an off key instrument, and the vice-principal calling a parent.
