Congratulations! Your home has been submitted to be toured and judged as an entry for the prestigious Greater Houston Builders Association's (GHBA) "Houston's Best PRISM Awards" as submitted by your builder, _____.

The GHBA is one of the largest and most well-respected local Builder Associations in the country, not only serving the needs of their member companies, but also supporting various community charities through the volunteer efforts of its committees and councils.

Judging teams consist of independent building industry professionals from outside the Houston market accompanied by a designated member company representative of the GHBA.

If this is the case, you may see different teams of judges accompanied by different GHBA representatives arrive at your home to judge other categories. Your builder should notify you of this in advance. You will be given a courtesy call or sent a text message the day of to let you know that a judging team is enroute to your home.
