Family Tree is a Thai brand for food obtained from organically grown agriculture. Organic agriculture benefits everyone's quality of life from the farmer to the consumer by reducing use of chemicals, pesticides, and insecticides which contaminate the environment, rivers, streams and the air we breathe. We firmly believe that our

“Family Tree products are...Good for you, Good for nature, Wholesome food for your family”

Family Tree rice pastas are made from whole grain organic rice in genuine organic process, keeping all ingredients natural with no addition of color, chemicals or preservatives. Our process starts from rice which is dry milled to preserve all good nutrients. Rice farming is free from pesticides, herbicides and synthetic fertilizers. Harvesting and keeping is also no use of fumigation. Once mixed with no use of preservative, rice is formed into shape in quick-straight process to retain full nutritional values and aroma of rice. The pasta obtained is naturally sun dried at low temperature under hygienic condition in the HACCP certified facility. Family Tree rice pasta contains benefit of natural vitamins, minerals and dietary fiber from whole grain rice which are gift from nature for your health.

Family Tree products are: Non-GMO, Vegan, Kosher, Gluten Free, Wheat Free, Soy Free, Dairy Free, Nut Free, & Egg Free. *By having no wheat content, Family Tree rice pasta products are safe for persons who are allergic to gluten.

At Family Tree, we value our employees, the most valuable asset. We treat our people as one of our family members in the way we want to be treated in return. We believe in doing good things because we realize that this is the only way to sustain in business. Our intention is to make good food, clean food and healthy food in the same way as we make it for our own children to eat every day. This is the only way we do, no others.

Our Policy:

We wish you to enjoy our gluten – free rice pastas in perfect condition. If you are unhappy with it any way, please return it with the package bearing “Best Before” code to Quality Assurance Department, Family Tree Foods Co., Ltd. We will refund the price of a replacement plus postage to you. If you want to contact us with any comments or enquiries please feel free to contact via www.familyfarmorganic.com.

Lastly at Family Tree, we believes that in the future everyone will see the benefit of organic agriculture because it does not destroy life and the environment, is beneficial to everyone’s health, our nature, and can improve the livelihood of farmers. We want to see organic produce at a price that is not high and everyone can buy. To do this people should consume more organic products to ensure that farmers have steady income.
