ALL MY OWN WORK

1. Acknowledgement of Sources by compiling a bibliography

One of the most important elements of good practice involves careful acknowledgement of the ideas of others used in your response. This acknowledgement should occur in your answer at the point where you use another's ideas (e.g. Jones, 2007 p 92 author's surname, date of publication, page) and in the bibliography at the conclusion of your response.

2. No Plagiarism

Plagiarism involves using the work of another person and presenting it as your own. These are some ways you would be plagiarising, unless you have clearly acknowledged your source:

- Copying out part(s) of any document from any source, including the internet
- Using someone else's ideas or conclusions, even if you have put them in your own words, and
- Copying out or taking ideas from the work of another student/tutor/other source, even if you have reworded some parts
