1. Jurisdiction Questions (Only complete if no support order exists and the other parent does not reside in Oregon)

This information will help us decide if the State of Oregon can legally establish a support order against the other party, or if another jurisdiction will be requested to establish the order. If you answer yes to any of the first four questions (1A-1D) for one or more of the children listed above, please continue to complete the entire form, and return it to the office below. Please list all children for whom you are answering in the blank for each question. If you answer no to all of the first four questions (1A-1D) for all children, please also complete 1E & 1D only and return this form to the office below. Different paperwork may be needed to request another jurisdiction to establish the order.
