

TREATY TERRITORY ACKNOWLEDGEMENT STATEMENT

Background

The Division recognizes the historical significance and contributions of the Indigenous Peoples and their cultures and understands the important role that the Indigenous community plays today and in the future. The Division also understands the importance of honoring the following Canadian events, namely:

- 2015 – Truth and Reconciliation Commission (TRC) Final Report
- 2008 – National Statement of Apology to former students of Indian Residential Schools
- June 21, 1996 – National Indigenous Peoples Day
This is a day for all Canadians to recognize and celebrate the unique heritage, diverse cultures and outstanding contributions of First Nations, Inuit and Métis peoples. The Canadian Constitution recognizes these three groups as Aboriginal peoples, also known as Indigenous Peoples.

And as such the Division recognizes the importance of honoring and acknowledging both Treaty 6 and 8 territories as we work towards strengthening relations and building bridges with our neighboring communities.
