

DO NOT SEND ANY DOCUMENTS TO THE CONSULAR SECTION

Checklist for Fiance(e) K1 visa interview

Please bring all the items listed below where applicable. One set of documents is required for each applicant. All documents not in English, Ukrainian, or Russian need a certified translation into English. Detailed information is available at <https://ua.usembassy.gov/visas/immigrant-visas/fiancee-visa/> .

- ☐ 1. Passport, child's passport/travel document registered with TMM courier service for delivery.
- ☐ 2. Two photographs 5x5 cm taken in the last six months cropped and signed in English (first and last name).
- ☐ 3. Medical examination.
- ☐ 4. Birth certificate.
- ☐ 5. Marriage certificate(s) or name change certificate(s).
- ☐ 6. Divorce certificate(s).
- ☐ 7. Death certificate(s).
- ☐ 8. Police certificate(s) listing all names ever used, including maiden and married names. You will need one for each country where you have lived for 6 months or more while 16 years old or older. Originals only. Include court and police records if ever arrested, detained or convicted of a crime (even if expunged) as well as translations.
- ☐ 9. Military records.
- ☐ 10. Adoption decree.
- ☐ 11. The custody status of all applicants' children will be reviewed. Applicants need to bring all documents related to the birth, adoption, and parental rights including permission to travel of the other parent is not accompanying them. The Ukrainian government has certain requirements for children under 16 years old traveling outside of Ukraine. You may contact the Ukrainian Border Control to find out more about the requirements applicable to your specific situation.
- ☐ 12. Evidence of relationship with your fiancé(e) – written correspondence, photographs, phone records, skype logs, travels etc.
- ☐ 13. Confirmation page for DS-160 application form.
- ☐ 14. Evidence of support – from your American fiancé(e) – Affidavit of Support I-134 with the most recent tax return and/or W-2.

Please be advised that no advance assurance can be given as to when or whether a visa will be issued. You should NOT give up your job, dispose of your property, or make any final travel arrangements until you receive your passport with the visa.

kyiviv@state.gov