Mini Script and Vocabulary List: The Bucket List (1:03:33 – 1:09:50)

In Egypt_____

Edward

How do we get down from this tomb?

In India_____

Carter

The empress was the wife of Shah Jehan, the fifth mughal emperor. Although it was an arranged marriage they were deeply in love and remained inseparable until she died giving birth to their 14th child.

1. inseparable: if people are inseparable it means they have a very close relationship and spend a lot of time together
2. a shah: a king
3. Mughal Empire: an empire in Asia from 1526 – 1858 ruling over most of the Indian subcontinent established by Muslim rulers

Edward

Do you mind if I call you Ray? Main man Ray.

Absolutely. 14 kids. I'm with you.

4. main man: best friend
5. I'm with you: I am following what you are saying; I understand what you are saying

Carter

It took 20,000 volunteers 22 years to complete this structure. Every square foot designed by the Shah himself.

Edward

So that's true love. Must be nice.

Don't know if I buy the whole 20,000 volunteers business.

Funeral plans tend to confuse me. Specifically buried or cremated.

Take buried – I know it shouldn't matter but I'm claustrophobic. What if I wake up underground and nobody can hear me. Do they still make those coffins with the bells? Then cremated – what do you do with the ashes? Do you bury 'em, scatter 'em, put 'em on a shelf, float 'em down the Ganges on a bed of flowers? What if I feel the flames? Maybe we should go frozen like Walt Disney.

6. I don't know if I buy: I don't believe...
7. business: matter; situation
8. cremate: to burn the body of a dead person
9. take buried: for example, buried
10. claustrophobic: feeling afraid because you are in a small or crowded space
11. what if I feel the flames: Edward thinks that if he is cremated, he might be able to feel it
12. frozen like Walt Disney: there was a rumor after Walt Disney's death that his body was frozen, however the truth is he was cremated

Carter

Cremated. Ashes put in a can and buried someplace with a view.

I never liked the sound of the word "urn".

13. urn: a container for the ashes of a dead person after the body has been cremated

Edward

Really? Got any special feelings about "crypt"?

14. crypt: an underground room where the bodies of dead people are buried, usually under a church

Carter

No, an old Chok Full O' Nuts can will do me just fine.

Edward

The heavenly coffee.

Carter

Better coffee even your money can't buy, my friend.

Edward

Don't bet on it.

15. Don't bet on it: used for expressing doubt about something

Carter

Oh right. Kopi Luwak.

Edward

Whatta you got against Kopi Luwak?

16. What have you got against...?: Why do you dislike or not approve of...?

Carter

Too fancy for my tastes.

17. my tastes: things I like or things I am interested in

Edward

Too fancy for my main man Ray.

The Great Wall of China_____

Edward

This is China for you baby!

The Himalayas_____

Carter

Be a lot more majestic if we could see it.

Edward

See that old woman? Odds are we are going to be dead before her.

Of course she's probably got reincarnation going for her however that system works.

18. odds are: chances are

19. reincarnation: the belief that after you die you can be born again as a different person, animal, or thing

20. going for her: in her favor

Carter

Buddhists believe you keep coming back; moving up or down a level based on how you lived your life.

Edward

See that's where they lose me. I mean what would a snail have to do to move up, in the line up? Lay down a perfect trail of slime?

21. they lose me: I am no longer interested or believe in what they are saying

22. slime: a thick, wet, unpleasant substance

Thomas

Shitty news or really shitty news?

There's a storm up there.

23. shitty: extremely casual meaning very bad, boring, or annoying

Edward

Well thanks for the bulletin Tom we can't even see the goddamn thing!

Maybe your mountain is trying to tell us something.

Ok, ok you don't have to get chippy with me.

Next Hong Kong. Silk suits and black-walnut ice cream.

24. bulletin: short news broadcast

25. chippy: tending to become angry or upset very easily

Hong Kong_____

Carter

The Tibetans call it Chomulungma – "Goddess Mother of the Snows".

Woman

"Goddess Mother of the World" actually. In the traditional Tibetan translation.
