Form I-9
OMB No. 1615-0047
Expires 03/31/2016

Read all instructions carefully before completing this form.

Anti-Discrimination Notice. It is illegal to discriminate against any work-authorized individual in hiring, discharge, recruitment or referral for a fee, or in the employment eligibility verification (Form I-9 and E-Verify) process based on that individual's citizenship status, immigration status or national origin. Employers CANNOT specify which document(s) they will accept from an employee. The refusal to hire an individual because the documentation presented has a future expiration date may also constitute illegal discrimination. For more information, call the Office of Special Counsel for Immigration-Related Unfair Employment Practices (OSC) at 1-800-255-7688 (employees), 1-800-255-8155 (employers), or 1-800-237-2515 (TDD), or visit www.justice.gov/crt/about/osc.

What Is the Purpose of This Form?

Employers must complete Form I-9 to document verification of the identity and employment authorization of each new employee (both citizen and noncitizen) hired after November 6, 1986, to work in the United States. In the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands (CNMI), employers must complete Form I-9 to document verification of the identity and employment authorization of each new employee (both citizen and noncitizen) hired after November 27, 2011. Employers should have used Form I-9 CNMI between November 28, 2009 and November 27, 2011.

General Instructions

Employers are responsible for completing and retaining Form I-9. For the purpose of completing this form, the term "employer" means all employers, including those recruiters and referrers for a fee who are agricultural associations, agricultural employers, or farm labor contractors.

Form I-9 is made up of three sections. Employers may be fined if the form is not complete. Employers are responsible for retaining completed forms. Do not mail completed forms to U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) or Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE).

Section 1. Employee Information and Attestation

Newly hired employees must complete and sign Section 1 of Form I-9 no later than the first day of employment. Section 1 should never be completed before the employee has accepted a job offer.

Provide the following information to complete Section 1:

Name: Provide your full legal last name, first name, and middle initial. Your last name is your family name or surname. If you have two last names or a hyphenated last name, include both names in the last name field. Your first name is your given name. Your middle initial is the first letter of your second given name, or the first letter of your middle name, if any.

Other names used: Provide all other names used, if any (including maiden name). If you have had no other legal names, write "N/A."

Address: Provide the address where you currently live, including Street Number and Name, Apartment Number (if applicable), City, State, and Zip Code. Do not provide a post office box address (P.O. Box). Only border commuters from Canada or Mexico may use an international address in this field.

Date of Birth: Provide your date of birth in the mm/dd/yyyy format. For example, January 23, 1950, should be written as 01/23/1950.

U.S. Social Security Number: Provide your 9-digit Social Security number. Providing your Social Security number is voluntary. However, if your employer participates in E-Verify, you must provide your Social Security number.

E-mail Address and Telephone Number (Optional): You may provide your e-mail address and telephone number. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) may contact you if DHS learns of a potential mismatch between the information provided and the information in DHS or Social Security Administration (SSA) records. You may write "N/A" if you choose not to provide this information.

All employees must attest in Section 1, under penalty of perjury, to their citizenship or immigration status by checking one of the following four boxes provided on the form:

1. A citizen of the United States

2. A noncitizen national of the United States: Noncitizen nationals of the United States are persons born in American Samoa, certain former citizens of the former Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, and certain children of noncitizen nationals born abroad.

3. A lawful permanent resident: A lawful permanent resident is any person who is not a U.S. citizen and who resides in the United States under legally recognized and lawfully recorded permanent residence as an immigrant. The term "lawful permanent resident" includes conditional residents. If you check this box, write either your Alien Registration Number (A-Number) or USCIS Number in the field next to your selection. At this time, the USCIS Number is the same as the A-Number without the "A" prefix.

4. An alien authorized to work: If you are not a citizen or national of the United States or a lawful permanent resident, but are authorized to work in the United States, check this box.

If you check this box:

a. Record the date that your employment authorization expires, if any. Aliens whose employment authorization does not expire, such as refugees, asylees, and certain citizens of the Federated States of Micronesia, the Republic of the Marshall Islands, or Palau, may write "N/A" on this line.

b. Next, enter your Alien Registration Number (A-Number)/USCIS Number. At this time, the USCIS Number is the same as your A-Number without the "A" prefix. If you have not received an A-Number/USCIS Number, record your Admission Number. You can find your Admission Number on Form I-94, "Arrival-Departure Record," or as directed by USCIS or U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP).

(1) If you obtained your admission number from CBP in connection with your arrival in the United States, then also record information about the foreign passport you used to enter the United States (number and country of issuance).

(2) If you obtained your admission number from USCIS within the United States, or you entered the United States without a foreign passport, you must write "N/A" in the Foreign Passport Number and Country of Issuance fields.

Sign your name in the "Signature of Employee" block and record the date you completed and signed Section 1. By signing and dating this form, you attest that the citizenship or immigration status you selected is correct and that you are aware that you may be imprisoned and/or fined for making false statements or using false documentation when completing this form. To fully complete this form, you must present to your employer documentation that establishes your identity and employment authorization. Choose which documents to present from the Lists of Acceptable Documents, found on the last page of this form. You must present this documentation no later than the third day after beginning employment, although you may present the required documentation before this date.

Preparer and/or Translator Certification

The Preparer and/or Translator Certification must be completed if the employee requires assistance to complete Section 1 (e.g., the employee needs the instructions or responses translated, someone other than the employee fills out the information blocks, or someone with disabilities needs additional assistance). The employee must still sign Section 1.

Minors and Certain Employees with Disabilities (Special Placement)

Parents or legal guardians assisting minors (individuals under 18) and certain employees with disabilities should review the guidelines in the Handbook for Employers: Instructions for Completing Form I-9 (M-274) on www.uscis.gov/I-9Central before completing Section 1. These individuals have special procedures for establishing identity if they cannot present an identity document for Form I-9. The special procedures include (1) the parent or legal guardian filling out Section 1 and writing "minor under age 18" or "special placement," whichever applies, in the employee signature block; and (2) the employer writing "minor under age 18" or "special placement" under List B in Section 2.

Section 2. Employer or Authorized Representative Review and Verification

Before completing Section 2, employers must ensure that Section 1 is completed properly and on time. Employers may not ask an individual to complete Section 1 before he or she has accepted a job offer.

Employers or their authorized representative must complete Section 2 by examining evidence of identity and employment authorization within 3 business days of the employee's first day of employment. For example, if an employee begins employment on Monday, the employer must complete Section 2 by Thursday of that week. However, if an employer hires an individual for less than 3 business days, Section 2 must be completed no later than the first day of employment. An employer may complete Form I-9 before the first day of employment if the employer has offered the individual a job and the individual has accepted.

Employers cannot specify which document(s) employees may present from the Lists of Acceptable Documents, found on the last page of Form I-9, to establish identity and employment authorization. Employees must present one selection from List A OR a combination of one selection from List B and one selection from List C. List A contains documents that show both identity and employment authorization. Some List A documents are combination documents. The employee must present combination documents together to be considered a List A document. For example, a foreign passport and a Form I-94 containing an endorsement of the alien's nonimmigrant status must be presented together to be considered a List A document. List B contains documents that show identity only, and List C contains documents that show employment authorization only. If an employee presents a List A document, he or she should not present a List B and List C document, and vice versa. If an employer participates in E-Verify, the List B document must include a photograph.

In the field below the Section 2 introduction, employers must enter the last name, first name and middle initial, if any, that the employee entered in Section 1. This will help to identify the pages of the form should they get separated.

Employers or their authorized representative must:

1. Physically examine each original document the employee presents to determine if it reasonably appears to be genuine and to relate to the person presenting it. The person who examines the documents must be the same person who signs Section 2. The examiner of the documents and the employee must both be physically present during the examination of the employee's documents.
2. Record the document title shown on the Lists of Acceptable Documents, issuing authority, document number and expiration date (if any) from the original document(s) the employee presents. You may write "N/A" in any unused fields.

If the employee is a student or exchange visitor who presented a foreign passport with a Form I-94, the employer should also enter in Section 2:

- a. The student's Form I-20 or DS-2019 number (Student and Exchange Visitor Information System-SEVIS Number); and the program end date from Form I-20 or DS-2019.
3. Under Certification, enter the employee's first day of employment. Temporary staffing agencies may enter the first day the employee was placed in a job pool. Recruiters and recruiters for a fee do not enter the employee's first day of employment.
 4. Provide the name and title of the person completing Section 2 in the Signature of Employer or Authorized Representative field.
 5. Sign and date the attestation on the date Section 2 is completed.
 6. Record the employer's business name and address.
 7. Return the employee's documentation.

Employers may, but are not required to, photocopy the document(s) presented. If photocopies are made, they should be made for ALL new hires or reverifications. Photocopies must be retained and presented with Form I-9 in case of an inspection by DHS or other federal government agency. Employers must always complete Section 2 even if they photocopy an employee's document(s). Making photocopies of an employee's document(s) cannot take the place of completing Form I-9. Employers are still responsible for completing and retaining Form I-9.

Unexpired Documents

Generally, only unexpired, original documentation is acceptable. The only exception is that an employee may present a certified copy of a birth certificate. Additionally, in some instances, a document that appears to be expired may be acceptable if the expiration date shown on the face of the document has been extended, such as for individuals with temporary protected status. Refer to the Handbook for Employers: Instructions for Completing Form I-9 (M-274) or I-9 Central (www.uscis.gov/I-9Central) for examples.

Receipts

If an employee is unable to present a required document (or documents), the employee can present an acceptable receipt in lieu of a document from the Lists of Acceptable Documents on the last page of this form. Receipts showing that a person has applied for an initial grant of employment authorization, or for renewal of employment authorization, are not acceptable. Employers cannot accept receipts if employment will last less than 3 days. Receipts are acceptable when completing Form I-9 for a new hire or when reverification is required.

Employees must present receipts within 3 business days of their first day of employment, or in the case of reverification, by the date that reverification is required, and must present valid replacement documents within the time frames described below.

There are three types of acceptable receipts:

1. A receipt showing that the employee has applied to replace a document that was lost, stolen or damaged. The employee must present the actual document within 90 days from the date of hire.
2. The arrival portion of Form I-94/I-94A with a temporary I-551 stamp and a photograph of the individual. The employee must present the actual Permanent Resident Card (Form I-551) by the expiration date of the temporary I-551 stamp, or, if there is no expiration date, within 1 year from the date of issue.
3. The departure portion of Form I-94/I-94A with a refugee admission stamp. The employee must present an unexpired Employment Authorization Document (Form I-766) or a combination of a List B document and an unrestricted Social Security card within 90 days.

When the employee provides an acceptable receipt, the employer should:

1. Record the document title in Section 2 under the sections titled List A, List B, or List C, as applicable.
2. Write the word "receipt" and its document number in the "Document Number" field. Record the last day that the receipt is valid in the "Expiration Date" field.

By the end of the receipt validity period, the employer should:

1. Cross out the word "receipt" and any accompanying document number and expiration date.
2. Record the number and other required document information from the actual document presented.
3. Initial and date the change.

See the Handbook for Employers: Instructions for Completing Form I-9 (M-274) at www.uscis.gov/I-9Central for more information on receipts.

Section 3. Reverification and Rehires

Employers or their authorized representatives should complete Section 3 when reverifying that an employee is authorized to work. When rehiring an employee within 3 years of the date Form I-9 was originally completed, employers have the option to complete a new Form I-9 or complete Section 3. When completing Section 3 in either a reverification or rehire situation, if the employee's name has changed, record the name change in Block A.

For employees who provide an employment authorization expiration date in Section 1, employers must reverify employment authorization on or before the date provided.

Some employees may write "N/A" in the space provided for the expiration date in Section 1 if they are aliens whose employment authorization does not expire (e.g., asylees, refugees, certain citizens of the Federated States of Micronesia, the Republic of the Marshall Islands, or Palau). Reverification does not apply for such employees unless they chose to present evidence of employment authorization in Section 2 that contains an expiration date and requires reverification, such as Form I-766, Employment Authorization Document.

Reverification applies if evidence of employment authorization (List A or List C document) presented in Section 2 expires. However, employers should not reverify:

1. U.S. citizens and noncitizen nationals; or
2. Lawful permanent residents who presented a Permanent Resident Card (Form I-551) for Section 2.

Reverification does not apply to List B documents.

If both Section 1 and Section 2 indicate expiration dates triggering the reverification requirement, the employer should reverify by the earlier date.

For reverification, an employee must present unexpired documentation from either List A or List C showing he or she is still authorized to work. Employers CANNOT require the employee to present a particular document from List A or List C. The employee may choose which document to present.

To complete Section 3, employers should follow these instructions:

1. Complete Block A if an employee's name has changed at the time you complete Section 3.
2. Complete Block B with the date of rehire if you rehire an employee within 3 years of the date this form was originally completed, and the employee is still authorized to be employed on the same basis as previously indicated on this form. Also complete the "Signature of Employer or Authorized Representative" block.
3. Complete Block C if:
 - a. The employment authorization or employment authorization document of a current employee is about to expire and requires reverification; or
 - b. You rehire an employee within 3 years of the date this form was originally completed and his or her employment authorization or employment authorization document has expired. (Complete Block B for this employee as well.)

To complete Block C:

- a. Examine either a List A or List C document the employee presents that shows that the employee is currently authorized to work in the United States; and
 - b. Record the document title, document number, and expiration date (if any).
4. After completing block A, B or C, complete the "Signature of Employer or Authorized Representative" block, including the date.

For reverification purposes, employers may either complete Section 3 of a new Form I-9 or Section 3 of the previously completed Form I-9. Any new pages of Form I-9 completed during reverification must be attached to the employee's original Form I-9. If you choose to complete Section 3 of a new Form I-9, you may attach just the page containing Section 3, with the employee's name entered at the top of the page, to the employee's original Form I-9. If there is a more current version of Form I-9 at the time of reverification, you must complete Section 3 of that version of the form.

What Is the Filing Fee?

There is no fee for completing Form I-9. This form is not filed with USCIS or any government agency. Form I-9 must be retained by the employer and made available for inspection by U.S. Government officials as specified in the "USCIS Privacy Act Statement" below.

Photocopying and Retaining Form I-9

A blank Form I-9 may be reproduced, provided all sides are copied. The instructions and Lists of Acceptable Documents must be available to all employees completing this form. Employers must retain each employee's completed Form I-9 for as long as the individual works for the employer. Employers are required to retain the pages of the form on which the employee and employer enter data. If copies of documentation presented by the employee are made, those copies must also be kept with the form. Once the individual's employment ends, the employer must retain this form for either 3 years after the date of hire or 1 year after the date employment ended, whichever is later.

Form I-9 may be signed and retained electronically, in compliance with Department of Homeland Security regulations at 8 CFR 274a.2.

USCIS Privacy Act Statement

AUTHORITIES: The authority for collecting this information is the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986, Public Law 99-603 (8 USC 1324a).

PURPOSE: This information is collected by employers to comply with the requirements of the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986. This law requires that employers verify the identity and employment authorization of individuals they hire for employment to preclude the unlawful hiring, or recruiting or referring for a fee, of aliens who are not authorized to work in the United States.

DISCLOSURE: Submission of the information required in this form is voluntary. However, failure of the employer to ensure proper completion of this form for each employee may result in the imposition of civil or criminal penalties. In addition, employing individuals knowing that they are unauthorized to work in the United States may subject the employer to civil and/or criminal penalties.

ROUTINE USES: This information will be used by employers as a record of their basis for determining eligibility of an employee to work in the United States. The employer will keep this form and make it available for inspection by authorized officials of the Department of Homeland Security, Department of Labor, and Office of Special Counsel for Immigration-Related Unfair Employment Practices.

Paperwork Reduction Act

An agency may not conduct or sponsor an information collection and a person is not required to respond to a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number. The public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated at 35 minutes per response, including the time for reviewing instructions and completing and retaining the form. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden, to: U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services, Regulatory Coordination Division, Office of Policy and Strategy, 20 Massachusetts Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20529-2140; OMB No. 1615-0047. Do not mail your completed Form I-9 to this address.

Colorado Affirmation Form Instructions Employment Verification Law, § 8-2-122, C.R.S.

Overview of the Colorado Employment Verification Law

The employment verification law applies to all public and private employers in Colorado, and is in addition to separate federal Form I-9 requirements. Employers must comply with the provisions of the law for all Colorado employees hired on or after January 1, 2007. There are two main requirements, both of which must occur within 20 calendar days of hire: (1) an affirmation requirement, and (2) a requirement to make and retain copies of employee identity and employment authorization documentation (copies of the employee's identity and employment authorization documents which were presented for completion of the Form I-9). Visit www.colorado.gov/cdle/evr for more information.

Completion of the Affirmation Form

1. The attached affirmation form is designed for use by Colorado employers. By signing the form, the employer affirms to all four of the employment eligibility components for the employee listed.
2. The employer must have completed an affirmation form for all Colorado employees hired on or after January 1, 2007.
3. Effective October 1, 2014, Colorado employers must use the Division affirmation form with a revision date of 09/01/14.
 - a. The 09/01/14 version of the form must be used for all Colorado employees hired between October 1, 2014 and October 1, 2017.
 - b. The 09/01/14 version of the form cannot be used for Colorado employees hired prior to September 1, 2014.
4. The form must be completed within 20 calendar days after hiring each employee. Review the information below if you have not adhered to this requirement.
5. The employer, not the employee, is responsible for filling out and completing the form in a timely fashion. The form may be completed by the employer's designee or representative.
6. The following items on the form must be legibly completed by the employer. The employer may not leave any of these items blank or incomplete:
 - a. Employee name and date of hire (Month/Day/Year).
 - b. Employer name, signature, and date of employer signature (Month/Day/Year).

Retention of the Affirmation Form

Forms must be retained by the employer for the duration of the employee's employment. The employer must produce copies of the form to the Colorado Division of Labor upon request, but does not have to submit forms absent a request.

Failure to Properly Complete the Affirmation Form or Work Eligibility Documentation Requirements

The employer must provide accurate and complete information on the form. Provision of false or fraudulent information on the form may subject the employer to a significant fine and/or additional penalties.

If the employer has not properly completed the affirmation form within 20 calendar days of hiring the employee, or the employer has not made and retained copies of employee identity and employment authorization documentation within 20 calendar days of hiring the employee:

1. DO NOT complete an affirmation form for the affected employee(s). The employer cannot complete a valid form once the 20 calendar days have elapsed since hire.
2. DO NOT backdate or otherwise enter incorrect information onto the form for the affected employee(s). The employer must not enter false or fraudulent information onto the form.
3. DO NOT attempt to make and retain copies of employee identity and employment authorization documentation if you did not comply with this requirement within 20 calendar days of hiring the employee. Seeking such documentation after the 20 calendar days have elapsed does not comply with Colorado law, and may also violate separate federal immigration laws.

DO comply with the employment verification law for all new hires going forward. The employer must: (1) properly complete affirmations, and (2) make and retain copies of employee identity and employment authorization documentation, within 20 calendar days of hire for all employees hired after the discovery of the historical noncompliance.

Following the steps above, and engaging in other appropriate compliance actions, may reduce the likelihood of a fine, or may mitigate the value of a fine, depending upon the circumstances. Consult with an attorney for legal advice.

This form cannot be used for employees hired prior to September 1, 2014.

Affirmation of Legal Work Status
Pursuant to § 8-2-122, Colorado Revised Statutes

Employee Name: _____
Last First Middle Date of Birth

Social Security Number: _____ Date of Hire: _____(MM/DD/YYYY)

In accordance with § 8-2-122, C.R.S., within 20 calendar days after hiring the new employee listed above,

I affirm all four of the following by signing this form:

1. I have examined the legal work status of the above named employee.
2. I have retained file copies of the documents required by 8 U.S.C. sec. 1324a.
3. I have not altered or falsified the employee's identification documents.
4. I have not knowingly hired an unauthorized alien.

Print Name of Employer (or Designated Representative)

Official Title

Signature of Employer (or Designated Representative)

_____(MM/DD/YYYY)
Date Signed by Employer

Business or Organization Name

Employer Phone Number

The provision of false or fraudulent information on this form may subject the employer to a significant fine and/or additional penalties.

This form and the documents required by 8 U.S.C. sec. 1324 (copies or electronic copies) will be retained for the duration of the above named individual's employment.

§ 8-2-122(2), C.R.S.: On and after January 1, 2007, within twenty days after hiring a new employee, each employer in Colorado shall affirm that the employer has examined the legal work status of such newly-hired employee and has retained file copies of the documents required by 8 U.S.C. sec. 1324a; that the employer has not altered or falsified the employee's identification documents; and that the employer has not knowingly hired an unauthorized alien. The employer shall keep a written or electronic copy of the affirmation, and of the documents required by 8 U.S.C. sec. 1324a, for the term of employment of each employee.

Form W-4 (2016)

Purpose. Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. Consider completing a new Form W-4 each year and when your personal or financial situation changes.

Exemption from withholding. If you are exempt, complete only lines 1, 2, 3, 4, and 7 and sign the form to validate it. Your exemption for 2016 expires February 15, 2017. See Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Note: If another person can claim you as a dependent on his or her tax return, you cannot claim exemption from withholding if your income exceeds $1,050 and includes more than $350 of unearned income (for example, interest and dividends).

Exceptions. An employee may be able to claim exemption from withholding even if the employee is a dependent, if the employee:

- Is age 65 or older,
- Is blind, or
- Will claim adjustments to income; tax credits; or itemized deductions, on his or her tax return.

The exceptions do not apply to supplemental wages greater than $1,000,000.

Basic instructions. If you are not exempt, complete the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. The worksheets on page 2 further adjust your withholding allowances based on itemized deductions, certain credits, adjustments to income, or two-earners/multiple jobs situations.

Complete all worksheets that apply. However, you may claim fewer (or zero) allowances. For regular wages, withholding must be based on allowances you claimed and may not be a flat amount or percentage of wages.

Head of household. Generally, you can claim head of household filing status on your tax return only if you are unmarried and pay more than 50% of the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and your dependent(s) or other qualifying individuals. See Pub. 501, Exemptions, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information, for information.

Tax credits. You can take projected tax credits into account in figuring your allowable number of withholding allowances. Credits for child or dependent care expenses and the child tax credit may be claimed using the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. See Pub. 505 for information on converting your other credits into withholding allowances.

Nonwage income. If you have a large amount of nonwage income, such as interest or dividends, consider making estimated tax payments using Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals. Otherwise, you may owe additional tax. If you have pension or annuity income, see Pub. 505 to find out if you should adjust your withholding on Form W-4 or W-4P.

Two earners or multiple jobs. If you have a working spouse or more than one job, figure the total number of allowances you are entitled to claim on all jobs using worksheets from only one Form W-4. Your withholding usually will be most accurate when all allowances are claimed on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job and zero allowances are claimed on the others. See Pub. 505 for details.

Nonresident alien. If you are a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Check your withholding. After your Form W-4 takes effect, use Pub. 505 to see how the amount you are having withheld compares to your projected total tax for 2016. See Pub. 505, especially if your earnings exceed $130,000 (Single) or $180,000 (Married).

Future developments. Information about any future developments affecting Form W-4 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) will be posted at www.irs.gov/w4.

Privacy Act and Paperwork Reduction Act Notice. We ask for the information on this form to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. Internal Revenue Code sections 3402(f)(2) and 6109 and their regulations require you to provide this information; your employer uses it to determine your federal income tax withholding. Failure to provide a properly completed form will result in your being treated as a single person who claims no withholding allowances; providing fraudulent information may subject you to penalties. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation; to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. commonwealths and possessions for use in administering their tax laws; and to the Department of Health and Human Services for use in the National Directory of New Hires. We may also disclose this information to other countries under a tax treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce federal nontax criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism.

You are not required to provide the information requested on a form that is subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act unless the form displays a valid OMB control number. Books or records relating to a form or its instructions must be retained as long as their contents may become material in the administration of any Internal Revenue law. Generally, tax returns and return information are confidential, as required by Code section 6103.

The average time and expenses required to complete and file this form will vary depending on individual circumstances. For estimated averages, see the instructions for your income tax return.

If you have suggestions for making this form simpler, we would be happy to hear from you. See the instructions for your income tax return.

Member Information Form—Defined Benefit Plan(s)

Colorado Public Employees' Retirement Association
PO Box 5800, Denver, Colorado 80217-5800
303-832-9550 • 1-800-759-PERA (7372) • Fax: 303-863-3727 • www.copera.org

To New Colorado PERA Members:

Welcome to membership in the Colorado Public Employees' Retirement Association (PERA).

As an employee of a public employer affiliated with Colorado PERA, you may or may not pay Social Security tax depending on whether your employer contributes to both Colorado PERA and Social Security. Colorado PERA is a qualified retirement plan that can substitute for Social Security, as required by law.

Upon receipt of the form, Colorado PERA will mail you a Colorado PERA membership packet that explains your Colorado PERA benefits and establish a defined benefit (DB) plan account for you:

- You will contribute 8 percent of your salary to your DB plan account through payroll deduction. If you are a State Trooper, you will contribute 10 percent. Colorado PERA will pay interest on your DB plan account. The interest rate is determined by the Colorado PERA Board of Trustees and is subject to change annually. See the Colorado PERA Web site for the current rate or call Colorado PERA's Customer Service Center at 303-832-9550 or 1-800-759-7372.
- Your Colorado PERA contributions are tax-deferred and are not subject to federal or state income tax until you refund your DB plan account or receive a monthly benefit. Your contributions and interest will always be returned to you, either in the form of a rollover/refund or a monthly benefit.

While our mission is to provide members with retirement benefits, we also provide the following other benefits:

- Monthly benefits to your qualified survivors if you die after earning one year of service credit. If you have a Denver Public Schools (DPS) benefit structure DB plan account, eligibility for survivor benefits is different. See the Survivor Benefits booklet for more information.
- Disability coverage after you have five years of earned service credit.
- A voluntary life insurance program in which you may participate immediately.
- Voluntary retirement savings plans such as the PERAPLus 401(k) Plan and the PERAPLus 457 Plan (if your employer participates). For more information about PERAPLus plans, see Colorado PERA's Web site at www.copera.org or call Colorado PERA's Customer Service Center at 303-832-9550 or 1-800-759-7372.
- The option to purchase service credit based on a refunded/rolled over DB plan account or for employment not covered by Colorado PERA or another retirement program when you have one year of earned service credit. See the Purchasing Service Credit booklet for more information.

When you end Colorado PERA employment, you may leave your DB plan account with Colorado PERA (it will continue to earn interest). If you return to Colorado PERA employment, your DB plan account will be ready to accept additional contributions and you will build additional service credit. If you leave your DB plan account at Colorado PERA, be sure to keep us informed of your address to prevent your DB plan account from being transferred to the State's Unclaimed Property Fund.

Again, welcome to Colorado PERA! We will strive to inform you about your Colorado PERA benefits by sending you the Colorado PERA Member Report newsletter three times per year, a statement of your DB plan account annually after your first year of membership, and other information.

Member Information Form—Defined Benefit Plan(s) Instructions

Please read all of the following information before completing this form (pages 3 and 4):

- Type or print in black ink and sign the form. Please do not send photocopies of the form or staple, tape, or glue items to it.
- If you are a new member, give the form to your personnel office to send to Colorado PERA.
- If you are changing information already on file with Colorado PERA, send the form to Colorado PERA and provide your employer with a copy. Changes made on this form take effect upon receipt of the completed form at Colorado PERA.
- As a result of the merger between Colorado PERA and the Denver Public Schools Retirement System (DPSRS), you may have two DB plan accounts with Colorado PERA—one under the PERA benefit structure and one under the DPS benefit structure. If you have two DB plan accounts, changes under the Member Information section will be made to both DB plan accounts (if applicable).
- If you have changed your name, changed employers, or want to change your address or beneficiary(ies), complete the form and send it to Colorado PERA. Colorado PERA requires a new copy of your signed Social Security card only if you have changed your name since sending in your initial copy.
- If you need to list additional named beneficiaries, complete the Additional Named Beneficiaries section on page 4. Be sure to sign page 4 as well, or your beneficiaries will not be added/changed.
If you complete any beneficiary information on the form and submit the form to Colorado PERA, you are canceling and replacing all of your previously named beneficiaries. If you want to continue any previous designations, you must fully name all named beneficiaries on the form or on a separate list submitted with the form.
- If you would like to change your address only, go to Colorado PERA's Web site (www.copera.org) and log in to your account using your PERA PIN/User ID and password. You may change your address using "Update Contact Info." You may also call Colorado PERA's Customer Service Center at 303-832-9550 or 1-800-759-7372 and speak to a Customer Service Representative.
- If you need to change information on your Colorado PERA-sponsored life insurance, PERAPlus 401(k) or 457 Plan, or PERA DC Plan, see the information below.

Named Beneficiary Information

If you have a DB plan account in both the PERA and DPS benefit structures, use the check boxes on the form to indicate if your requested beneficiary changes apply to one or both of your DB plan accounts. If you do not check a box, the beneficiary changes will be made to both DB plan accounts (if applicable). No law shall apply to automatically revoke a spouse's designation as a named beneficiary upon your divorce, annulment, or any dissolution or declaration of invalidity of your marriage.

Beneficiary definitions:

- Primary Beneficiary—beneficiary to receive payment. If you have more than one primary beneficiary, payment will be divided equally among all primary beneficiaries.
- Contingent Beneficiary—person to receive payment if your primary beneficiary(ies) is deceased. If you list more than one contingent beneficiary, payment will be divided equally among them.

Survivor Benefit Information

If you have more than one year of service under the PERA benefit structure or more than five years under the DPS benefit structure, State law specifies who receives monthly benefits after you die. Survivor benefits are different under the PERA and DPS benefit structure DB plan accounts; see the Survivor Benefits booklet for detailed information.

Changing Colorado PERA Life Insurance, PERAPlus 401(k) and 457 Plans, or PERA DC Plan Information

- If you are enrolled in Colorado PERA-sponsored life insurance and have changed employers, notify your new employer to deduct your life insurance premium. If you want to change your life insurance beneficiary(ies), call Unum toll-free at 1-866-277-1649 or go to Colorado PERA's Web site (www.copera.org) and log in to your account using your PERA PIN/User ID and password and select "Life Insurance" under the "Inquiry" menu.
- If you have a PERAPlus 401(k) or 457 Plan, or PERA DC Plan, and need to change your name, address, or phone number, complete the PERA Account(s) Address Change Form. If you need to make beneficiary changes to your PERAPlus 401(k) or 457 Plan, or PERA DC Plan, complete the respective 401(k), 457, or PERA DC Plan Beneficiary Designation Form. You can obtain the forms online at www.copera.org or by calling 1-800-759-7372 and selecting the PERAPlus or DC Plan option.
- If you have a PERAPlus 401(k) Plan account and are transferring from or are currently employed by another Colorado PERA employer and actively contributing, notify your new employer's payroll office so that contributions may continue through your new employer. If you have a PERAPlus 457 Plan and need to add or change employers, log on to the PERA Web site and select the 457 Plan option.
