BIO

"Don't be afraid of dreaming so big that your journey leaves footprints in the sand for others to follow. We often settle for a "check the box" life but your story is much bigger than your to-do list. Choose to roar to your own beat, connect your story to your purpose, and let your story be your legacy." Janet Autherine

Janet has a heart for storytelling and youth empowerment. She uses her extraordinary immigrant journey from humble beginnings in Jamaica to a respected attorney, author and administrative law judge to inspire others to embrace their unique journey. She is the author of Growing into Greatness with God: 7 Paths to Greatness for our Sons & Daughters (youth), Wild Heart, Peaceful Soul (poetry) and An Island Girl's Journey to Mindful Living (April 2020). Her books are available on Amazon.
