GOALS – Why are you taking this course? How does it fit into your graduating program? What new experiences related to the course will you create, to put your learning into practice?

SPECIFIC LEARNING OBJECTIVES

Your objectives should indicate the most important outcomes you expect to achieve through your work ---in class meetings and through personal study and activities outside of class. You are not expected to list every possible outcome, but write at least two objectives for every category below.

KNOWLEDGE: Major bodies of fact and theory you will learn.

SKILLS: skills, techniques and methods you will learn.

ETHICS & AESTHETICS: Issues you will consider; personal and social commitments to use your learning to help others and to build a better world; efforts to appreciate and create beauty and meaning through self-expression.

RESPONSIBILITY: Your commitment to personal study, class attendance, constructive participation in class, as well as to help classmates learn.

EVALUATION

For each objective indicate what you will present to the professor to document your learning, in order to receive credit.

UPPER DIVISION CREDIT: If this course is listed as LD/UD, and you are seeking UD Credit, what additional or alternative work will you do to earn Upper Division Credit?
