

Behavioral Intervention Incident Report Form

Bronx Community College is concerned about the safety and well-being of all students, faculty, staff and community members. In an effort to maintain open channels of communications across campus, we have created this incident report form. This form provides an opportunity for all faculty, staff, students and community members to report any concerning behavior to the Behavioral Intervention Team (BIT). Reportable behaviors may include, but are not limited to:

- Self-injurious behavior (Suicidal ideation/attempt, cutting behavior, dangerous alcohol/substance abuse consumption, etc.)
- Disruptive behavior that violates community safety (homicidal threats, stalking, assault, cyber bullying, carrying weapons, etc.)
- Unusual behavior (changes in personality, depressive symptoms, shifts in mood, unexplained irritability and/or lethargy, hopelessness, etc.)
