Thesis and Cognate essay/Major paper/Master's Research paper Advisory Committees

Students in the Thesis and Cognate essay/Major paper/Master's Research paper streams will submit their research proposals and undertake their research projects in consultation with an Advisory Committee consisting of their Supervisor and at least two other Readers/Advisors. An Advisory Committee may be composed from any of the faculty in the Tri-University Graduate Program in History, provided those faculty are members of the Graduate Faculty at their respective institutions. The Advisory Committees will be set up in conjunction with the deadlines established for student submission of proposals for Thesis or Cognate essay/Major paper/Master's Research paper projects. The additional members of the Advisory Committee for each individual student will be established by consultation between the local Graduate Officer, the Tri-University Director, the Supervisor and the student. To assist in this process the Director of the Tri-University program will maintain up-to-date lists or panels of faculty who might be asked to serve as Readers/Advisors, identified by historical period, areas of national or regional concentration and thematic focus.

The Advisory Committee will assess the student's research proposal to recommend its acceptance, modification or rejection. The Advisory Committee will review the final draft of the Thesis or Cognate essay/Major paper/Master's Research paper, and indicate whether it is ready for oral defence by completing the requisite examination request/release form.
