

ACTOR/PARENT CONTRACT

CAST MEMBERS

I promise:

- 1: to respect myself, my fellow cast-mates and my director.
- 2: to arrive 10 minutes prior to the rehearsal start time in order to stretch out and be ready to go on time.
- 3: to remain at rehearsal until I am dismissed.
- 4: to keep my cell phone turned off during rehearsals.
- 5: to learn my lines, music, blocking and choreography by the scheduled dates.
- 6: to maintain my duties at home and at school (including my grade status, homework, etc.).
- 7: to read, study or observe the rehearsal while I'm not onstage, instead of talking or texting.
- 8: to take my commitment to this show seriously. I understand that each cast member is equally important to the good of the show.

PARENTS

I promise:

- 1: to submit all pre-planned absences during the first week of auditions. I understand that absences submitted after the first week of auditions will not be honored.
- 2: to contact the production staff if we are running late to rehearsal.
- 3: to submit any incidental fees in a timely manner.
- 4: to turn in the appropriate paperwork on time.
- 5: to honor the closed rehearsal policy.

Please keep in mind:

* 1 No Call/No Show (or unapproved absence) will result in the actor being removed from the songs and scenes that were rehearsed that day. * 3 No Call/No Shows (or unapproved absence) will result in the actor being removed from the production altogether without a refund. If a cast member does not attend the final class/camp/or tech/dress rehearsals the last three days before performance, they may not be permitted to perform.

Please bring your questions or concerns to the Stage Manager, Instructor, or Director of Theatre School: Ben Cole – Ben@northcoastrep.org.

I have read the above contract and agree to do my very best.
