Email: EWenberg@soyagrainsalliance.org

PROPOSAL DEADLINE: 01/23/2020

SSGA's and USSEC's standard practice is to RFP every three years openly and competitively. This type of cost analysis will assist in determining the fair market value for the work to be performed and allows SSGA and USSEC the opportunity to evaluate various proposals and select the best contractor for the job based on experience, availability, expertise, approach, and cost.

INTRODUCTION/PURPOSE OF RFP:

The Specialty Soya and Grains Alliance (SSGA) is a national alliance of companies focused on production, processing, and shipping of specialty soya and grains worldwide. Its mission is to provide resources that communicate the quality, diversity, and availability of their products.

The U.S. Soybean Export Council (USSEC) is a dynamic partnership of key stakeholders representing soybean producers, commodity shippers, merchandisers, allied agribusinesses and agricultural organizations. Through a global network of international offices and strong support in the U.S., USSEC helps build a preference for U.S. soybeans and soybean products, advocate for the use of soy in feed, aquaculture, and human consumption, promote the benefits of soy use through education and connect industry leaders through a robust membership program. Its mission is to optimize the utilization and value of U.S. soy in international markets by meeting the needs of our stakeholders and global customers.

This is an RFP for a qualified, experienced special events consultant ("Contractor") to produce the 2020 U.S. Soy Global Trade Exchange (GTE) and Specialty Grains Conference. The event is organized jointly by USSEC and SSGA and is in its 8th year as a joint event. The two groups leverage their partnership to produce the United States' largest global event for foreign buyers and U.S. sellers of U.S. soy and products, transportation, data, processing, and affiliated services. This event has a strong committee structure of event professionals to work with the contractor but need the support of extra assistance for this flagship event.

SSGA will contract the selected event planner on behalf of both organizations. USSEC and SSGA collaborate, sharing responsibility for the event. The scope of services under the proposed agreement includes responsibility for all tasks as concerns this event including venue selections, budgeting and planning, online registration including credit card services, room block management and event management functions such as on-site-registration, banqueting, audiovisual, trade show, and subcontracted services such as signage and transportation. The contractor will manage and execute the event, as well as bringing innovation, creativity, and an entrepreneurial approach to it.

BACKGROUND AND PURPOSE OF PROJECT:

This event brings together foreign buyers of U.S. soy from over 50 nations to meet their U.S. based sellers. The primary mission of the event is to increase foreign purchases of U.S. soy and educate foreign buyers and the U.S. soy industry about the global innovations needed to continue the U.S. tradition of high quality, sustainable crops for sale in international markets. The event runs for 2.5 days and has now has approximately 800 attendees. The main elements of the conference is an educational/learning day made up of general and breakout sessions, a trade show exhibition, and networking events such as a reception, breakfasts and lunches. The conference attracts full media. Extensive additional meeting rooms are needed for the press, trade presentations, private meetings, and board meetings.

TARGET AUDIENCE:

The GTE's audience is diverse and consists of:

- North American grain and oilseed industry exporters and agribusiness officials
- International buyers and traders of the best premium food and commodity soybeans, grains and other commodities.
- Ocean, rail, trucking transportation, shipping and logistics industry company representatives and officials
- Grain elevator managers and directors
- Farmer producers and state and national agricultural organization leaders
- State and federal transportation and agriculture agency government officials
- University transportation and agriculture research institution representatives
- Anyone interested in international agriculture trade and the latest food industry trends

SCOPE (SERVICES) OF WORK:

The Contractor will be expected to provide all services necessary and appropriate to manage and execute the GTE, including but not limited to the services ("Services") detailed herein.

The Services outlined herein is not intended to be exhaustive. The selected Contractor will be expected to be, among other needed skills: organized; detailed oriented; flexible; an effective verbal and written communicator; calm under pressure; and a negotiator in the best interest of the GTE event. There are significant logistics and a need for the contractor to be able to react quickly to changes in travel schedules from abroad and the U.S. visitors. Strong financial management with realistic budgets and fast clearance of payments and invoices will be required of the contractor. The joint committee members value openness and honesty in contracting. Any data generated by the Contractor will belong to both partners SSGA and USSEC.

Site Selection and Contracting

- Develop and send RFP for site selection. To aid this process we have drawn up a list of locations.
- Review responses and recommend suitable hotels and venues for event.
- Provide guidance on decisions that will benefit the development of a quality look and professional appearance of the conference.
- Negotiate venue contract including room blocks and attrition, hotel amenities, and discounts.
- Support site visits of the joint conference partners for site selection.

Prepare and Update Project Budgets

- Prepare detailed budget for projected revenue, then costs for services, venues, and subcontractors, and/or vendors. Historical data can be advised as a starting point.
- Provide updates on budgeted versus actual revenues and cost, adhering to set budget goals. The conference receives revenue from sponsors, exhibitors, and registrants. Example costs include hotel meeting spaces, meals included in the conference, evening receptions, audio-visual, signage, trade show decoration and construction, trade show amenities to exhibitors. Receipt and shipment home of associations and exhibitors materials.

Registration

- Develop and build an online registration platform to manage information from attendees, sponsors and exhibitors. Registration system must be able to:
 - a. Offer discounts and/or complementary registrations to select guests.
 - b. Take payment online and be able to give the registrant the option to receive an invoice and let them send in a check.

For money collected via card payment cardholder information and Service Provider shall at all times remain in compliance with the Payment Card Industry Data Security Standard ("PCI DSS") requirements, including remaining aware at all times of changes to the PCI DSS and promptly implementing all procedures and practices as may be necessary to remain in compliance with the PCI DSS.
 - c. Provide bulk registration for those that register as groups.

The following additional features would also be useful if available:

- d. Ability to integrate hotel room block with hotel, so inventory is always current
- e. Group invoicing available for those that register in bulk

- Able to provide quick reporting including audited results.
- Provide push notifications to registered exhibitors or sponsors
- Provide onsite registration for 'walk in' attendees.
- Produce reports on trends during registration

Vendor Management

- Provide constant communication between client and venues.
- Select food and beverage menus.
- Monitor rooming needs through hotel blocks with selected hotels, managing attrition rates and contract nights with the joint conference partners. Up-to date reports on room blocks should be able to be pulled easily.
- Facilitate audio visual and trade show arrangement.
- Facilitate all exhibitor requirements with venue and manage exhibit from beginning to end.
- Communicate trade show arrangements between staff, venue, and contractors.
- Make arrangements for adequate physical and cyber security at the chosen venues and with online registrations.

Event Management

As the selected Contractor, you will serve as lead for all event management in close conjunction with the conference association partners, with a focus on forethought, excellent communication, anticipation of next steps and excellent initiative is a must.

- Facilitate weekly contact with the joint conference partners, providing seamless client support.
- Draft, manage, and finalize the GTE project plans, budgets, timelines and deployment schedule; and oversee execution of all related tasks with the event partners.
- Onsite the Contractor will manage the event production including ensuring proper set up of rooms, proper positioning of signage, confirm meals and refreshments, direct audio-visual based on the days' plans, verify exhibitor setup and tear down, respond to services requests, and provide avenues for shipment arrival and shipping. The contractor will provide staff and meaningful support to work with venues and subcontractors at the show site.
- Draft, manage and distribute the onsite schedule
- Participate in weekly meetings for 30 minutes with both partners.

Account reconciliation, audit and verification

- Contractor back office should reconcile hotel and vendor accounts and any revenues within 30-60 days after the show's conclusion. Note that USSEC's Financial Year ends on September 30 and any of USSEC's relating to USSEC must be complete by that date.
- Quickly verify and audit all credit card payments with any established refund or cancellation. Transfer any final paid invoices and receipts to SSGA. Be prepared to provide verification of transactions and receipts. Speed and accuracy are prized.

Entrepreneurship on how to quickly account for, and close out the GTE.

- Submit a post-event report with recommendations for future. Report to also include feedback on subcontractors and vendors.
