

Technology Acceptable Use Policy Agreement (For students and parents at Futurus High School)

Each student and his or her parent(s)/guardian(s) must sign this Agreement before being granted network/internet access at Futurus High School (FHS) through Centralia School District (CSD). Please read this document carefully before signing.

Centralia School District provides computer use, including internet access, to students and teachers in order to further the educational aims of Futurus High School. Access is given as a privilege, not a right, and may be limited or denied by Futurus personnel.

Futurus administration, faculty, and staff reserve the right to review and remove any student's files and data records used on the school technology/communication system which violate the Terms and Conditions below.

Terms and Conditions you agree to as a CSD/FHS Student

1. I understand that...

- The school reserves the right to restrict the use of any digital content (such as content used primarily for a social or entertainment purpose or detracts from the educational environment). These restrictions may be enforced on the school network and/or any electronic device I use while at FHS.
- All school-provided technology, including network access and storage, is for educational use. Any other use -may result in loss of access and/or confiscation of equipment.
- Futurus email and other Futurus accounts are Centralia School District (CSD) property.
- Anything I do on CSD/FHS computers, or the related network is not private and can be monitored by Futurus faculty and staff.

2. I will...

- abide by all rules and regulations of the system as changed or added from time to time by the administration of CSD/FHS.
- address all concerns regarding the use of technology first to the supervising teacher or other teacher/para educator, and then to the FHS administration.
- abide by the additional rules set out in the classroom agreement.

3. I will not...

- use any personal laptop, netbook, ipad, tablet, or e-reader in the classroom.
- use any other personal electronic devices in the classroom unless the teacher authorizes me to do so.

- use any software or access any internet content in the classroom, if its use has been prohibited by the teacher or it violates this policy.
- attempt to circumvent or uninstall monitoring software from my any CSD/FHS device.
- use CSD/FHS computers, dvd/vcr players, flip cameras, classroom projectors or other school technical equipment without permission.
- use anyone else's ID and password nor allow anyone else to use my usernames or passwords
- attempt to hack or otherwise breach security of any school or CSD computer, server, or any other person's account.
- attempt to introduce any virus or malware, or any other destructive software, onto any CSD/FHS computers or across the CSD network.
- download or store any software, music, games, videos or other media for which I have not obtained a legal license.
- download, install or run any software for which I have not obtained a legal license.
- plagiarize, or violate copyright laws in regards to using text, images, audio, music or video clips.
- vandalize any CSD/FHS property, or the personal technology property of others at FHS
- interfere with others' use of technology.
- use any computer to commit acts which are illegal.
- use social media while at school.

4. I assume responsibility for...

- any damages to CSD/FHS equipment while I am using it. This includes paying for repairs.
- any consequences that arise from my use of technology- including my cell phone- while at FHS.
- my actions while on-line. This means that I will be polite to others and use appropriate language.

Consequences for Violations

Students who violate the Acceptable Use Policy may lose their privileges at the discretion of the teacher and/or administration. The length of time for which the privileges will be lost will be determined by the administration on an individual basis. Further disciplinary action including, but not limited to, detentions, suspensions, expulsions and police notification will be issued by the administration as deemed necessary.

I understand and will abide by all rules contained in this Technology Acceptable Use Policy Agreement and any other rules of computer use at CSD/FHS, on the CSD/FHS network or Internet use adopted from time to time. I further understand that should I commit any violation, my access privileges may be revoked and school disciplinary action and/or appropriate legal action may be taken against me.

Terms and Conditions you agree to as a CSD/Futurus High School parent/guardian:

I understand that...

1. I am responsible for monitoring my child's use of the district-provided laptop outside of Futurus High School. I am responsible for whatever my student does on any non-school-provided electronic device that my student may carry with them to school, including personal smartphones and laptops.

2. The school attempts to bar access by students to certain material which is not in furtherance of educational purposes. I also recognize it is impossible for the school to restrict access to all controversial and inappropriate materials. I will hold harmless the district and its employees and agents from any cause of action related to my child obtaining access to materials or software, which may be inappropriate.

3. I have discussed the terms of this Agreement and the rules with my child. I hereby request that my child be allowed access to the CSD/FHS computers, network and the Internet.
