

Write a Community Purpose Statement

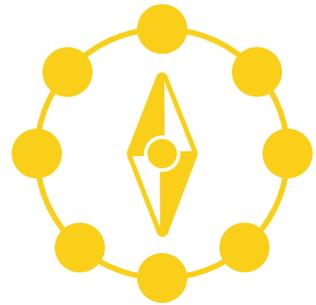

A community purpose statement is a clear, concise way to introduce your community to others while also serving as a type of rubric to guide future decisions about the community. To accomplish these goals, your purpose statement should describe all three aspects of your "community formula":

A group of motivated people

Organized around a common interest

Moving in a strategic direction

Identify six keywords/phrases to incorporate in your community purpose statement:

 Speed draft three versions of a community purpose statement:

Draft a new version of your community purpose statement from your three speed draft versions:

Share the revised draft of your community purpose statement (above) with a partner, and ask for their feedback. You can share your statements and feedback with each other via Slack, or schedule a short meeting to discuss your suggestions live; it's up to you.

Take some notes based on your partner's feedback:

Elements to keep

Changes to consider

Other/general comments

Rewrite your community purpose statement:

