

Checklist: New product launch or major development

When a listed company or its subsidiary has a significant development relating to its resources, technology, products, new product launch, or significant discovery of natural resource, the listed company is required to promptly disclose the information to SET.

Information Disclosure	Checked (✓)
1. Date of material events ( the date of product development completion, product launch or discovery )
2. Summary of important information of such development, product or discovery
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Details: Project title, the manner of business operation, type, location of such discovery and useful life period</li><li>• Investment value</li></ul>
3. Benefits to the listed company ( i.e., how it will boost the company's income, period and proportion of realized income )
4. Approval from related agencies

Template to choose for reporting the news to SET

Headline	Template
- Report the launch of new products.... - Report an update/cancellation/change of products about...	Choose Other

Reference: SET Notification on Rules, Conditions and Procedures Governing the Disclosure of Information and Other Acts of a Listed Company B.E. 2560 (2017)