

Married At State School.

Vergennes—The first marriage that has ever taken place at the chapel at the Vermont Industrial School, Vergennes, was that Wednesday evening, August 6. The contracting parties were Samuel Wentworth Payne and Miss Emma J. Beers, both of whom were brought up at the school. Mrs. Payne is now matron at the school, and Mr. Payne is an assistant in charge of the work about the institution.

Clipped By:

newbury
Sun, Nov 10, 2019