

ALL ABOUT ME

The thing I'm most excited for this school year is...

A large, empty rounded rectangular box with a thick blue border, intended for the student to write their answer to the question above.

My favourite memory from Summer break is...

One thing I'd like my teacher and classmates to know about me is...
