

Summary Dissolution
Property Settlement Agreement

I. Introduction

We are _____, hereafter called Husband, and _____, hereafter called Wife. We were married on _____ and separated on _____. Because irreconcilable differences have caused the permanent breakdown of our marriage, we have made this agreement together to settle once and for all what we owe to each other and what we can expect from each other.

Each of us states here that nothing has been held back, that we have honestly included everything we could think of in listing the money and goods that we own; and each of us states here that we believe the other one has been open and honest in writing up this agreement. And each of us agrees to sign and exchange any papers that may be needed to complete this agreement.

Each of us also understands that even after a Joint Petition for Summary Dissolution is filed, this entire agreement will be cancelled if either of us revokes the Dissolution Proceeding.

II. Division of Community Property

We divide our community property as follows:

1. Husband transfers to Wife as her sole and separate property:

2. Wife transfers to Husband as his sole and separate property:

III. Division of Community Obligations

1. Husband shall pay the following debts and will not at any time hold Wife responsible for them:

2. Wife shall pay the following debts and will not at any time hold Husband responsible for them:

IV. Acknowledgment of Separate Property

1. Husband's Separate Property:

- owned or earned before the marriage,
- purchased or earned after your separation, or
- received as a gift or inheritance (just to husband) during the marriage.

2. Wife's Separate Property:

- owned or earned before the marriage,
- purchased or earned after your separation, or
- received as a gift or inheritance (just to wife) during the marriage.
